ABAKAN

After a 1st album released in 2014 rich in collaborations (Electro Deluxe, Hkb FiNN, Crystal Petit, Raphaele Altlan, Goldey Simon, Fred Dupont etc) and travels (mini tour in Asia), Abakan comes back at the end of 2018 on the label Active Records with the song "The People".

The track will be relayed by many French and foreign media and will be the subject of several radio rotations.

After this groovy and acclaimed return, Abakan returns in February 2019 with a more intimate track, "Perfect Paradise" alongside Nyr Raymond and Vincent Payen (trumpet player of Electro Deluxe).

The track will be seen more than 40K times on Facebook and 20K Youtube and will receive very good reviews.

"A very licked clip and a touching simplicity both in the instrumentation and in the lyrics. A nice surprise!" Jessica Saval - Rolling Stone France

"What a joy to discover this title. What a voice! It is rare to hear such beautiful things, so a big thank you " Matthieu - Scout @Spinnup

On June 21, 2019, the title "Freedom" is published. This time, the band explores more electro sounds while keeping the notion of groove that characterizes much of their music.

In April 2020, although blocked and confined, they collaborate from Vancouver to Tel Aviv via Paris on the track "Lonely Place".

Jonny Tobin, talented keyboardist from Vancouver, in the vein of Anomalie, or Christophe pinheiro, guitarist of abd al Malik, to Crystal Petit former leader of Electro Deluxe, will make the distances disappear around a track mixing funky and current sounds.

In September 2020 he reiterates the collaboration with Jonny Tobin and arranges with him his new Single called "Going Somewhere". Written during this period so particular that we all live, in the 4 corners of the world, and which speaks about this need to use our imagination to escape and continue to dream beyond the limits of confinement.

The video clip directed by Emmanuel Bardouil, will support this deep desire to go beyond the physical limits, more than ever present in our lives.

THE PEOPLE

SINGLE - 12-2018

The song speaks of the way in which, today, we communicate or exchange.

At a time when we are over-connected, or the information goes so fast, we communicate in the end, mainly through machines, losing by the way, a little of our humanity.
